SANITATION LAST MONTH

Dr. Pratt's Report on Work of His Office.

Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, chief sanitary officer and inspector of cemeteries, reported as follows on the work of his division for the month of January to the president of the Board of Health:

"During the month five complaints of nuisance were reported and, where they existed, were abated.
"Two 48-hour notices were served and had the desired effect.
"Fifty-eight recommendations for hotel, restaurant and lodging-house licenses were issued and 4253 persons can be lawfully lodged in the buildings.

"There were 44 inspections of graves made, one being a disinterment. Four graves were not inspected on account of other work.

"In the King street Catholic cemetery, the edges of three boxes were exposed and the bones of two adults.

"In Puia cemetery, the edge of one box was exposed, also the same in Kalaepohaku and Pauoa Church cemeteries.

"In Kawaiahao, one body and the edge of three boxes were exposed.
"Eighteen permits to keep pigs were issued.

"There were 12 deaths investigated and, where found necessary, post mortems ordered.

"One arrest was made for violation of Section 929 P. L. The party pleaded guilty and, as it was a second offense, he was fined $25 and costs.

"With the assistance of the police department, an arrest was made for violation of Section 927 P. L. The party pleaded guilty and was fined $250 and costs.

"The usual special work has been done during the month with verbal reports made to yourself. A trip was made to Waialua on special work."

Dr. Pratt reports, on the rat crusade for January, that 241 rats were caught in traps and 2540 pieces of poison eaten.

President Pinkham, in his statement of business to the Board of Health, gives the following additional details:

Honolulu sanitary inspectors ordered 1301 items of work and had 1251 items finished. They made 7861 inspections and performed 20 1-2 days of special duty.

There were 217 inspections of pig and duck ranches, with 65 items of work ordered and 62 finished. Swine permits issued were 20, with 619 swine allowed.

The Hilo sanitary inspector ordered 139 items of work, the same number being finished, and made 816 inspections. Rats caught in traps at Hilo were 135 and pieces of poison eaten 767.

COLGROVE FOUND BY THE ROADSIDE

The Manila Times refers to the death of Russell Colegrove, well-known in Honolulu, as follows:

The remains of Mr. Russell Colegrove, who was well-known in this city through his former connection with the Philippine transportation and construction company and mention of whose death in Peking appeared a few days ago, were taken after his death to the American barracks in Peking. Later they were conveyed to the cemetery outside the Hsi Pien gate, where they were interred.

The burial service was read by the Rev. Dr. Lowry and the services were attended by Mr. Conger, United States Minister, Mr. Coolidge, secretary of legation, Mr. William, Chinese secretary, students, and officers of the guard. Mr. Colegrove had been vice-consul-general at Canton.

He had conferences with prominent gentlemen in the service of the Chinese government recently with regard to the several undertakings which he was financing. He disappeared from the hotel there one day and was later found by two Chinese by the roadside outside the Water Gate in an exhausted condition. He was taken to the American Legation, where he was kindly cared for but did not survive the night.

NEGLECT ALWAYS DANGEROUS.
To the average man it seems childish to doctor a cold, and unless it becomes particularly annoying to him, little or no attention is given it. Often, a cold contracted in the winter is allowed to run until the opening of spring. This is a grave mistake, as even though the warm weather may bring relief, the system is thereby weakened and rendered susceptible to disease. A cold should never be neglected, whether it be a child or an adult who is afflicted, as health and often life is risked. A bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, costing but a small amount will bring

PREFER WILD ANIMALS.
The usual laboratory animals have been found inadequate in studying some of the newer features in connection with tuberculosis, syphilis and the tropical diseases owing their origin to blood parasites. Many medical institutions are anxious to secure gorillas and chimpanzees for this purpose, and the demand is said to have stimulated the collectors of these animals to unusual activity.

LIQUOR MEN DRAFTING BILL.

Daily meetings are being held by representative men of the liquor interest. Those seen yesterday neither admitted nor denied that the Governor's action in refusing the renewals of certain licenses was a subject of discussion.

There was no hesitation though, in asserting that the main subject of the liquor men's councils was a bill. It was intimated that the bill would probably be introduced in the Legislature next week.

"I do not know that the searchlight of publicity is required to be thrown on our proceedings," one wholesale liquor merchant said answering a query. "You will hear from us in a few days. It is a general meeting of representative liquor dealers."

The last remark was in reply to a question as to whether or not the retailers were represented at the conference.

Dear Sirs:—Some years ago my hair commenced to come out and in a short time I got so bald that I was obliged to wear a wig. For several years I had been using Danderine. I purchased a bottle of Danderine and after using it one week my hair stopped falling out. I am now on my fourth bottle and my hair is coming out time to time over five inches long, glossy and curly, where it was dead looking and straight before. It has also cured me of dandruff, which greatly annoyed me. I cannot speak too highly of your Danderine, which has undoubtedly saved my hair. Yours very respectfully,
Fred M'Adams.
